

IPDA-L Listservice Standards & Expectations

1. Please reserve use of the IPDA-L for community-wide broadcasts of general messages. This includes messages including tournament invitations, tournament results, or advertisements for scholarships, coaching positions or graduate assistantships. Any messages addressed to specific individuals should be handled via other private means
2. Please remember that the IPDA-L is not intended to replace traditional e-mail communication. This listservice is a mass communication supplement to our normal channels. Specific questions for members of the Executive Committee, the Governing Board, or any appointed officers of the IPDA should be sent to those individuals via direct email..
3. Please keep posts to the IPDA-L succinct and professional. This listservice is a courtesy of the IPDA and we ask that you maintain an appropriate level of decorum and demonstrate responsible, civil behavior with regard to your posts.
4. Please be sensitive to the realities of a publishing to a digital environment. Anything you transmit electronically may not only be searchable via search engines but be privy to review by academic institutions or employers that might provide your e-mail service.
5. Please realize your posted comments are a reflection of this organization. While we support your right to express your opinions, we also reserve the right to moderate the messages posted in this forum that violate any of the above rules or are deemed inimical to the spirit of this organization. This is an official channel of the IPDA; as such, the Executive Committee and/or its designates reserve the right to limit participation in this listservice forum.
