

Dear Debate Community,

On behalf of Louisiana Tech University, the School of Communication, LATech Debate Team, and Louisiana State University Debate Team, we invite you to the inaugural Virtual Hot & Spicy Tournament, October 17-18, 2020. The virtual competition will feature Team IPDA. We hope to offer you a fun and educational weekend of virtual debate competition. Tab will be run by the infamous Bob Alexander, Bossier Parish Community College. In the pages that follow, you will find all the details. If you have questions, please feel free to contact us at any time.

Sincerely,
Megan Smith and Kina Reed

For this virtual tournament you MUST cover your entries. Judges must also be able to judge the entire time, we will do our best to give judges some rounds off. Judges are required to stay in the judging pool throughout all elimination rounds, even if their team is out of competition.

Registration:

For registration and tabulation we will utilize forensicstournament.net and if you do not have a team profile in Forensics Tournament.net you will need to create one and invite your team members (competitors and judges). All members must verify their email addresses before they can be entered in the tournament. For judges you must set their ballot preference to “email” since this is a virtual tournament.

Once you have your team set up you can find the registration for our tournament at: www.forensicstournament.net/HotAndSpicyTIPDA/20

*Please make sure to check your judges ballot preference is “email” before Saturday morning before the start of the tournament.

We will utilize Yaatly for the debate rounds, prep, and draw. If you do not have a team page in Yaatly you will need to create one and invite all of your team members (competitors, judges, coaches, and volunteers). All members must verify their email addresses before they can access the tournament. Yaatly only works with the Chrome browser. The link to the tournament will be emailed out to those who have registered for the tournament.
